About the role - GILP Political Consultant

In this four year program, starting in the summer of 2021, Political Consultants will be part of multiple project teams working on advising senior client members in the political domain. They will be a part of multiple election campaigns and will work on some of the most challenging policy and governance problems facing the country.

During campaigns, political consultants interact closely with political leaders and organizers at the constituency, district, state and national level. While this is an interesting proposition and comes with enormous exposure, it also raises expectations of maintenance of confidentiality, display of exemplary client management skills and most importantly, of performance.

What are we looking for in our Associates?

As part of GILP, we are looking for team members at the associate level who demonstrate the following traits:

Description :
• Academic Excellence: Combine an impressive academic record with strong technical skills
• Prioritise Impact: Optimise for impact above everything else
• Structured Problem Solving: Tackle complex situations through effective and structured problem solving and out-of-the-box thinking
• Effective Communication: Possess strong written and verbal communication skills - both individually and in a group setting
• Initiative: Adapt to dynamic and ambiguous situations with a clear bias for action
• Teamwork: Contribute to the strong team ethic and work towards the success of the entire team
• Leadership Skills: Display the requisite leadership qualities to take ideas forward
• Strong Ethics: Possess uncompromising ethical principles

Eligibility

• In order to be eligible to apply for the Political Consultant position in GILP, you need to be from the top engineering, law, commerce, science or arts colleges in the country.

• You should be currently in your final year of a graduate/undergraduate course (3, 4 or 5 year integrated programs) at such a college and graduating from your course in 2021. Postgraduates are not eligible for GILP.
